The Rising Sun Cobham Road c: 1960s

Built in the late 1930s when Hodgson's Brewery purchased the piece of land opposite the old Rising Sun in Guildford Road.

It was typical of its time with a Saloon, Public and Private Bar together with an Off Licence. For many years the Rising Sun was a well-known stop-off for coaches returning to London from a day out at the seaside. The pub even supplied its own piano player.

Harroway Manor

The Courage Group eventually purchased the Hodgson Brewery. In recent years it was part of the Harvester chain of restaurants. In 2005 it was demolished and the site is now a housing development called Harroway Manor.
